Numb. 497.

The London Gazette.

Publiſhed by Authority.

From Saturday February 23. to Tuesday February 26. 1711.

Moſcow, Jan. 21. N. S.

ON the Seventeenth of December laſt, arriv'd here from Bender one Nibogati, a Ruſſe Interpreter, who was ſent thither by the Vicechancellor Schapiroff with a Paſſport for the King of Sweden; but we have no Account that it is accepted of by his Swediſh Majeſty: The ſame Meſſenger, after a ſmall Stay, ſet forward for Petersburg. We have not as yet had any Account that Aſoph or Taganrock are deliver'd up to the Turks. Some Officers belonging to the Ruſſian Artillery are expected here from Chioff, on which ſide the Muſcovite Army has abandon'd Poland, but are about to ſtrengthen their Body in the Poliſh Pruſſia with fourteen Regiments under the Command of General Repenin, who has made a Halt in the Dutchy of Smolensko. Her Czariſh Majeſty Dowager ſet out on the Eleventh Inſtant for Petersburg, together with the Princeſſes her Daughters: Two other Princeſſes, the Czar's half Siſters, who live in a Convent, are invited thither, to be preſent at his Majeſty's Nuptial Feaſt, which he deſigns to hold with great Solemnity: Four of the Senators are likewiſe order'd to wait on their Maſter. Some few days ago, Monſieur Tolſtoy, the Governor of Aſoph, arriv'd here from Petersburg; but as to the Meaſures he is to take with the High Admiral Apraxin when he arrives there, the Reports are very dubious. On the Nineteenth Inſtant, Mr. Stiles, one of the chief Britiſh Merchants, died of a burning Fever: He is much regretted, having been eſteem'd by, and very ſerviceable to, his Czariſh Majeſty.

Hanover, Feb. 19. N. S. The Baron de Grotz, formerly Envoy Extraordinary from his Electoral Highneſs, at the Conferences held at Hamborough by virtue of the Imperial Commiſſion, has been declar'd Privy-Counſellor, taken the uſual Oaths, and aſſiſted on Sunday laſt in that Quality: His Electoral Highneſs has likewiſe nam'd him to be his ſecond Plenipotentiary at the Congreſs for a General Peace, but the time is not fix'd for his departing hence for Utrecht; There is no Perſon as yet nominated to ſucceed him at Hamborough. The Duke of Wolfenbuttel had made great Preparations for the Fair of Brunſwick, which ended Yeſterday; but the Sovereign Princes, excepting the Duke of Mecklenburg, who were expected there, not making their appearance by reaſon of the rigor of the Winter, thoſe Diverſions are put off till another Occaſion. The King of Denmark, and his Queen Conſort, are ſtill at Coldingen in Jutland, where his Majeſty applies himſelf to the re-eſtabliſhment of his Troops, which ſuffer'd much in Men and Horſes during the laſt Campaign. The Queen-Dowager is ſtill at Oldenburg, and there is no Diſcourſe of any Removal of the Court that is likely to be made to Copenhagen.

Dublin, February 12. On Saturday laſt his Excellency Lieutenant-General Ingoldsby, one of the Lords Juſtices of Ireland, and Maſter of the Ordnance, was Inter'd in Chriſt-Church. The Solemnity of his Funeral began about One of the Clock, and proceeded from his late Dwelling-houſe in Henry Street in St. Mary's Pariſh, through Nine of the principal Streets of the Suburbs and City. The Proceſſion began by Forty-ſeven poor Men in black Gowns and Hoods, being as many as he was Years old, after whom March'd two Regiments of Foot, and two Troops of Horſe, with five Hautboys and a Trumpet, to ſound a Funeral March; they were follow'd by a Guidon carried by Captain Haynes, a Horſe in black with Eſcutcheons, two Bomb-carts, a Kettle-drum and five pieces of Ordnance, attended by ſix Montroſſes and ſix Gunners, together with the inferior Officers of the Ordnance, and the ſuperior ones all in Mourning. After theſe proceeded fourteen Footmen, four State Trumpets, and a Kettle-drum to ſound a Funeral March. The Standard carried by Capt. Edgworth, a Horſe in black, two State Trumpets to ſound a ſolemn Tune, five Phyſicians, Uſher of the Council, three Purſuivants, the Chyrurgion General, ſix Chaplains, Clerk of the Council, Steward and Comptroller, Phyſician General, two Pennons carried by Captain Jones and Captain Cary, a Horſe in black, carrying ſeveral Eſcutcheons, the Gentleman of Horſe holding the Rein; the Preacher, the Cauntlets carry'd by Capt. Dallway, Helmet and Creſt by Athlone Purſuivant of Arms, Serjeant of Arms in Mourning; the Horſe in black, cover'd with Eſcutcheons, Sword and Shield carried by Colonel Morris, Gentleman Uſher, Coat of his Arms carry'd by Ulſter King of Arms, who was follow'd by a Herſe with the Body, and then the Mourners and Judges on Foot; after whom went fifteen Mourning Coaches with ſix Horſes, and a great number of Lords and Gentlemens Coaches. As ſoon as the Corps was laid in the Herſe, by a Signal, the Ordnance fir'd a great Gun every Minute, and when the Corps was taken out of the Herſe, by a Signal, the Ordnance ceas'd firing, and all the Bells ſtopp'd. It was receiv'd at the Door of the Cathedral of Chriſt-Church by the whole Body of the Church and Choire, and after Service and a Sermon was ended, and the Corps interr'd, the King of Arms made a Proclamation of the Titles of his Poſts of Honour, and then by a Signal, the Ordnance fir'd three Rounds of twenty Guns each Round, and were anſwer'd by a Volley of the Army, who were drawn up for that purpoſe, one in Caſtle-ſtreet, one in High-ſtreet, and the Horſe in Chriſt-Church-Yard.

Deal, February 24. Here are Her Majeſty's Ships the Canterbury, Auguſt, Antelope, Swallow, Winchester, Reſerve, Royal-Anne-Gally, Scarborough, and Fortune Store-ſhip. Alſo Outward-bound, the Cheſiepeak and Prince Eugene for Virginia, the South-Carolina for Guinea, the Reward for New-York, and the Lisbon-Merchant for Lisbon.

Plymouth, February 22. The 20th Inſtant came in the Briſtol and Loo from the Eaſtward, and under their Convoy the Eagle for New-York, and eleven Merchant Ships from Topſham for Portugal. Outward-bound, the Wiſſelman, Return, Alleda, Maria, and Lady Suſanna, for Lisbon; Lady Maria, and Anna Catherina, for Dublin; Mary and Elizabeth,